

What did the Sixteenth Amendment to the Constitution
provide?

The amendment provided for a graduated
income tax.

What did the Seventeenth
Amendment
provide for?

The Seventeenth
Amendment
provided for the direct election of U.S. senators.

What was the purpose of the Federal Trade Commission?

To investigate
unfair business
practices

What was the name of the Bull Moose Party's platform in 1912? What were its major provisions?

1) The New Nationalism 2)
Federal old age;
unemployment; accident
insurance; eight-hour
workdays; women's suffrage;
abolition of child labor; and
expanded public health services

In the election of 1912, what was the term used to describe Democratic nominee Woodrow Wilson's platform? What were two features of this platform?

1) Wilson's platform was called the New Freedom 2) Two features of the platform were to restore economic competition through the breakup of monopolies and to lower tariffs.

There were four main candidates in the 1912 presidential election. Name the order of finish.

1) Woodrow Wilson
2) Theodore Roosevelt
3) William Howard Taft
4) Eugene Debs

What were the three main features of President Woodrow Wilson's legislative promise in 1913?

1) Reduction of the tariff
2) Return of the banking and currency laws
3) Improvements in the antitrust laws

What was the consequence of the 1918 congressional elections on President Wilson's international stature?

Wilson had appealed to the voters to elect a Democratic Congress; saying to do otherwise would be a repudiation of his leadership in European affairs. The voters gave the Republicans a slim margin in both houses in the election. This undermined Wilson's political support at home and his stature in the eyes of world leaders.

What did the Nineteenth
Amendment provided
for and when did the Congress approve it?

The Nineteenth
Amendment provided
for woman suffrage;
and Congress
approved it in 1919.

Name the most famous scandal
of the Harding administration.

The most famous scandal of the Harding administration was the Teapot Dome Scandal. Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall was convicted, fined, and imprisoned for accepting bribes in exchange for leasing oil reserves at Teapot Dome, Wyoming.

What famous saying is associated with
President Calvin
Coolidge?

"The business of the U.S. is business."

What was controversial about 1928 Democratic presidential nominee
Alfred Smith?

He was Catholic and against Prohibition.